Rumpke Awards Scholarships to Northwest Students

CINCINNATI, OHIO, (May 27, 2010)— Rumpke announced the recipients of five $1,000 scholarships given to Northwest High School seniors at the Honors Banquet on Wednesday, May 26 in the school's auditorium.

"Rumpke understands the importance of a strong school district, and we hope the scholarships help improve the learning experience. We have been an active part of the Colerain community since 1945, and our goal is to support our neighbors," said Molly Yeager communication coordinator at Rumpke.

As Northwest High School's business partner-in-education, Rumpke annually honors five students pursuing higher education.

The Rumpke Sanitary Landfill Scholarship is given to a junior or senior at Northwest High School who has achieved overall success in high school and plans to pursue a career in engineering. This year's scholarship winner is Carl Beimesche, a senior who will attend Miami University as a botany major.

The Rumpke Recycling Scholarship is awarded to a junior or senior who has excelled academically, ethically, in leadership and plans to pursue a marketing, or business related field in college. The 2010 recipient of this scholarship is Andrew Henry who will attend Miami University in the fall and major in Accounting.

The Rumpke Founders Scholarship is awarded to three juniors or seniors who have demonstrated achievement in scholastics, leadership, and service. Three seniors, Nichole Gustafson, Kelli James and Mary Cassandra Norton are this year's winners. The first recipient, Nichole Gustafson will attend Wooster College and major in Biology. Kelli James will attend Hampton University and major in Fashion Merchandising. The final winner, Mary Cassandra Norton will attend Ohio University to study English.

Rumpke Consolidated Companies, Inc. has been committed to keeping neighborhoods and businesses clean and green since 1932 by providing environmentally friendly waste disposal solutions. Headquartered in Colerain Township, Ohio, just outside of Cincinnati, Rumpke is one of the nation's largest privately owned residential and commercial waste and recycling firms, providing service to areas of Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana and West Virginia. Rumpke divisions include Rumpke Recycling, Rumpke Portable Restrooms, The William-Thomas Group, Rumpke Hydraulics, Rumpke Haul-it-Away and Rumpke Park.
